

Children' fears treated in funny stories

collection
HUMANISTES/
EN VERVE.

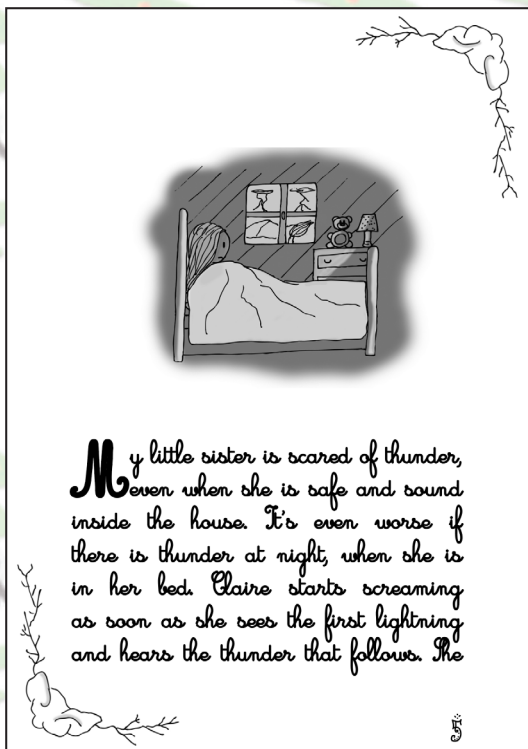

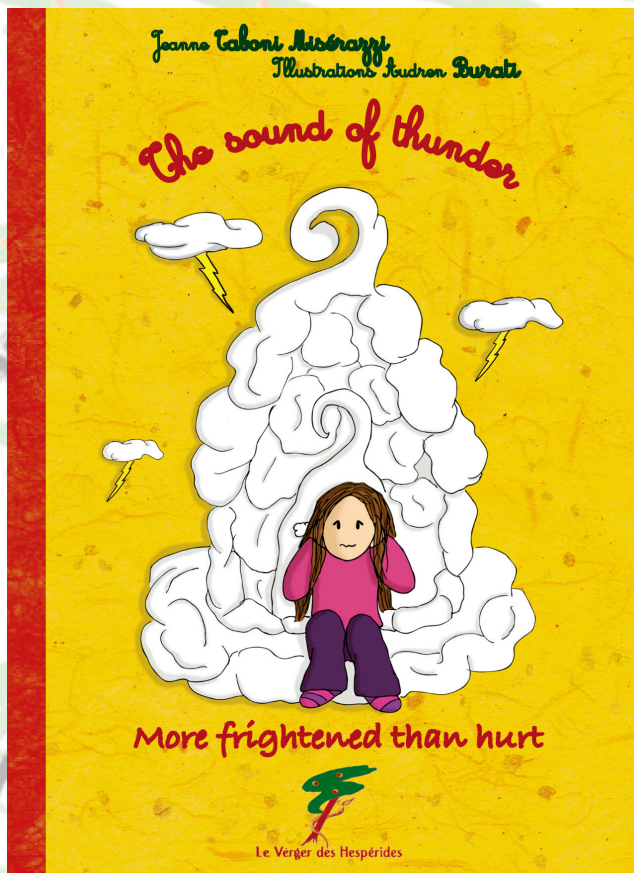

Afraid of darkness, of monsters and noises in a new house, to go to the doctor, afraid to have to stay alone at home, afraid of a new teacher, of the witch of the fridge, of a clap of thunder.

There are 6 small, full of humor and tenderness stories telling about typical children fears which, when there are over, permit the youngest to grow.

These small novels can be read to children about 4 years or can be the first novels read by reader beginners. The illustrations are in white and black to be colored by the children

A witch in the fridge / Alone at home / What lies under Sylvaine's bed / The medical examination / The sound of thunder / The substitute teacher

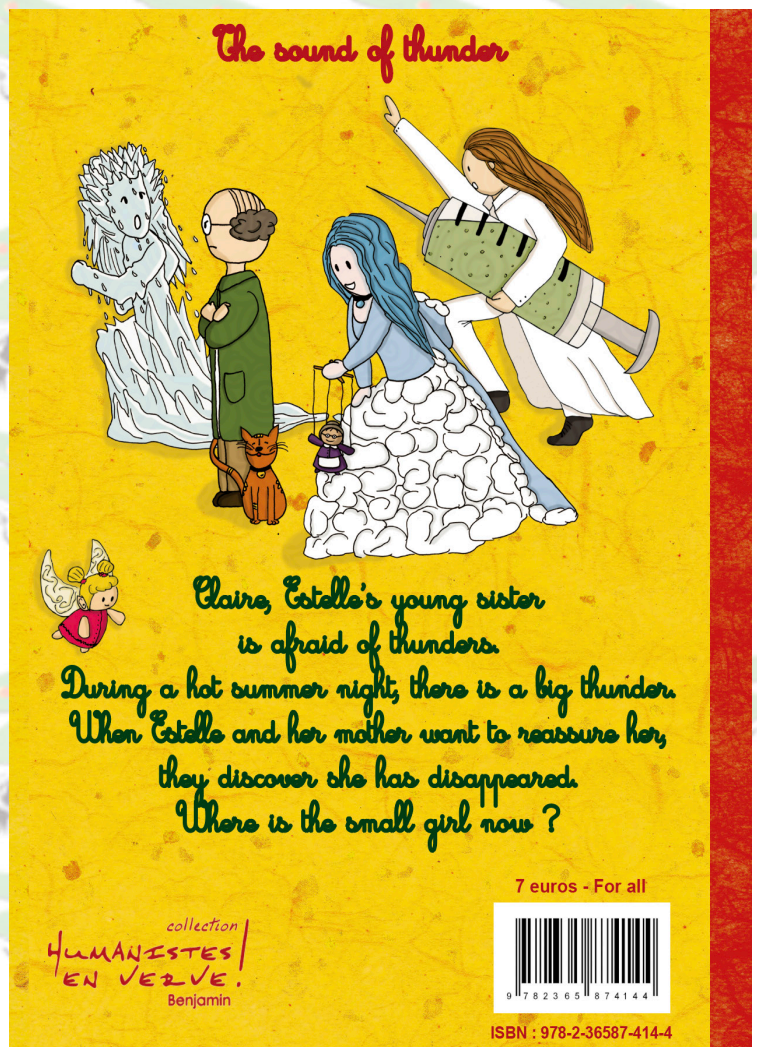

My little sister is scared of thunder, even when she is safe and sound inside the house. It's even worse if there is thunder at night, when she is in her bed. Claire starts screaming as soon as she sees the first lightning and hears the thunder that follows. She

Dimension : A5, price : 7 €

30 pages

ISBN : 978-2-36587-414-4

Black and white illustrations

Claire, Estelle's young sister is afraid of thunders.

During a hot summer night, there is a big thunder. When Estelle and her mother want to reassure her, they discover she has disappeared. Where is the small girl now?

7 euros - For all

collection
HUMANISTES/
EN VERVE.
Benjamin

ISBN : 978-2-36587-414-4

Jeanne Taboni Misérazzi
The author

Special sign : hates too normative things.

What she fears the most: stupidity

What marvels her: the sea.

Her passion: travelling in books.

Her speciality: to play the clown with children.

Her favorite meal: pasta.

Her favorite word: softness.

The word she hates: authority.

Her main default: oversensitive temperament.

Her main quality: perseverant.

If she could be another thing or character: a tree.

Audren Burati
The illustrator

Audren fell in a cooking pot full of books at a very young age. At that time, she created her universe like a magic potion: a bit of originality, a spoon of fantasy, and a lot of humor. Thats how she discovered the world of pirates, elves, trolls and fortified castles.

What is more, it was her way to become passionate by the field of illustration, now her big passion which allows her to share with the others the animated world she has in her head!

